

Expanding God's Kingdom: Taking the City

Marketplace Ministers is a group of community leaders who come together to be encouraged in Biblical principles of advancing the Kingdom of God through the marketplace just as Jesus did, AND called us to do. The Marketplace is the combination of business, government, and education. Through these three arteries flow the life of a city. A city cannot exist without a Marketplace in the same fashion that a body cannot live without a heart. Ministers are Jesus followers that serve others with the love and power of Jesus within them, guided by the Holy Spirit and obedient to the living word of God.

Today millions of men and women are called to full time ministry in business, education, and government - The Marketplace. Some of them have great influence on mainstream society, others are unsung heroes with low profiles, but each of them has been divinely called to bring the Kingdom of God to the Heart of the City! Christians who work at secular jobs need to know that they are not perpetual privates in God's army just because they have not gone to seminary. They need to discover that they have the potential to become full-fledged generals whose ministry is in the heart of a city instead of inside a religious building. You are a Minister in the Marketplace!
